Charles "Teenie" Harris was the principal photographer for the Pittsburgh Courier from 1931 until 1975. For more than forty years he documented Pittsburgh's African-American night clubs, ball-parks, laborers, and families with his Speed Graphic camera, and in so doing he poignantly captured and preserved a unique vision of twentieth-century experience.

Dr. François Clemmons, Middlebury's Twilight Artist-in-Residence and College Choir conductor, is the founder and director of the Harlem Spiritual Ensemble. Dr. Clemmons is a graduate of Oberlin College and is well known for his performance as Officer Clemmons on Mister Rodgers' Neighborhood. During his concert he will be joined by the Middlebury College Choir and the audience.
